

Achieving Lives NLP Practitioner and Master Practitioner code of ethics.

1. I understand the Achieving Lives NLP Practitioner certificate and Master Practitioner certificate is not equivalent to a professional qualifications needed in the traditional professions, teacher, Doctor, Dentist, Lawer, Psychologist, Nurse, etc. I recognize too that obtaining an NLP Practitioner or Master Practitioner certificate does not formally qualify me in anything other than NLP. I will not communicate anything other than the above to others.
2. I recognise Achieving Lives NLP Practitioner and Master Practitioner certification demonstrates I have begun my NLP journey. To what extent I obtain my personal and professional outcomes is the true measure as to the extent to which I have mastered NLP patterning and modelling.
3. I will not use my NLP skills and understanding to confer to others an expertise I do not possess.
4. I will use my NLP skills and understanding in a respectful way, and at all times will understand the primacy of the other person's model of the world and their stated needs.
5. I will endeavour to improve my NLP skills in the future on a regular basis.
6. As a practitioner of NLP I will endeavour to assimilate the pre-suppositions of NLP, and live my personal and professional life in accordance with the "spirit" of NLP. Curiosity, experimentation, respect, and fun would be some words that come to mind.
7. I recognise Achieving Lives has requested that I "use it or loose it". I further recognise responsibility to maintain the movement and energy created through attending my Achieving Lives NLP Practitioner / Master Practitioner is down to me.
8. I understand I have a role in developing this exciting new approach to personal and professional living.
9. I will seek support from Achieving Lives or any other experienced NLP trainer when appropriate to assist me in my journey.
10. I likewise will assist others in a respectful way when they ask me about what NLP has to offer.
